Dear Dr Raju:

Thank you for reviewing manuscript # JIMR-24-2236 entitled "Development of a non-contact and non-invasive continuous blood pressure measurement algorithm using video-plethysmography in critically ill patients" for Journal of International Medical Research.

In recognition of your continued support, Journal of International Medical Research and our publisher Sage are pleased to offer you 60 days complimentary online access to all journals published by Sage. Register at <http://journals.sagepub.com/page/help/reviewer-access> to activate access to content for all Sage titles. To also benefit from a 25% discount on all Sage books ordered online, go to the Sage website (<http://www.sagepublications.com/>) and add the Sage books that you would like to purchase to your shopping cart. When checking out, enter the Promotion Code GL10JR0001 when prompted. This will automatically deduct 25% from your final bill.

We are collaborating with Publons to give you the recognition you deserve for your peer review contributions. If you opted in for recognition on Publons when you submitted this review, you will shortly receive an email inviting you to claim your review on the site. If you would like to get credit for your peer review but did not opt in and/or have not yet signed up, you can still do so by registering at <https://publons.com/home/>. Then simply forward this email to reviews@publons.com and the review will be added to your profile.

On behalf of the Editors of Journal of International Medical Research, we appreciate the voluntary contribution that each reviewer gives to the Journal. We thank you for your participation in the online review process and hope that we may call upon you again to review future manuscripts.

Sincerely,
Neha Awale, PhD
Managing Editor, Journal of International Medical Research
